

NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 27.

THE WHIG WARD MEETINGS for the selection of Committees to nominate Charter Officers take place this day and evening, at the times and places designated by the Ward Committees respectively, and we earnestly hope that all who feel an interest in the selection of proper municipal functionaries will attend. Do not stay away and then grumble that fifty or sixty interested persons were enabled to pack a Committee to nominate unsuitably, but attend to the matter personally and thoroughly, and then, if things go wrong, you will have the consolation of knowing it is by no fault of yours. Let every good Whig look to this matter, and it can hardly fail to right.

"A Plain Talk with Boston."

A leading article with this title appeared in the New York Tribune of Saturday, which required a few words of explanation. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

What probably displeases the Tribune is the perfect lack of a speculative interest in the matter. He is perfectly right in his opinion. The Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

It is well known that the Tribune is a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

It is well known that the Tribune is a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

It is well known that the Tribune is a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

It is well known that the Tribune is a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

It is well known that the Tribune is a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

It is well known that the Tribune is a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

It is well known that the Tribune is a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

It is well known that the Tribune is a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

It is well known that the Tribune is a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

ever seriously entertained it, and was using the name of Mr. Webster as a cover to their maneuvers to carry the New-England delegates at Philadelphia for Gen. Taylor, and still secure the nomination of a prominent and active Bostonian (of course not Mr. Webster) for the Vice Presidency. Whether there is any such game on foot, and whether the Atlas is or is not a party to it, the reader will judge. If there be, (as who doubts?) we think it cannot secure the deliberate, open, hearty assent of New-England, but must be carried, if at all, by indirection. If there be, all that we proposed in our "plain talk" is pertinent and timely. And we say again to the Atlas, under the most solemn conviction of its truth, that if the Southern alternative, who is expected to "give assurance of victory," will give him the votes of Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas, he is very likely to lose the votes of New-York (rather an item of Ohio, Vermont, and even Massachusetts included). Would not his chance after that fall considerably short of an "assurance of victory," and his support be apt to prove a fruitless speculation?

VERMONT—License or No License?—The following is the vote of the whole State except one town on the License question:

1847.	1848.
Coventry, No License	1,000
Windsor, No License	1,000
Windsor, License	1,000
Windsor, License	1,000
Windsor, License	1,000
Windsor, License	1,000
Windsor, License	1,000
Windsor, License	1,000
Windsor, License	1,000
Windsor, License	1,000

This shows an official majority of 13 for License, but the vote of Brandon, Rutland Co. is not officially returned, and this town is known to have given more than enough to License. It is a nice point, therefore, to determine whether "License" or "No License" is to prevail through the year ensuing. P. S. Brandon, No License 162 to 23.

Messrs. Corwin and Thompson at New-Haven.

The Whig meeting yesterday it is conceded by all, were far equalled in numbers and enthusiasm in this city. The seats in the Exchange were nearly all taken out of the Hall, so as to afford the greatest possible amount of room to all those who wished to attend. The meeting was held in the afternoon, and was attended by a large number of persons. The Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

The Whig meeting yesterday it is conceded by all, were far equalled in numbers and enthusiasm in this city. The seats in the Exchange were nearly all taken out of the Hall, so as to afford the greatest possible amount of room to all those who wished to attend. The meeting was held in the afternoon, and was attended by a large number of persons. The Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

The Whig meeting yesterday it is conceded by all, were far equalled in numbers and enthusiasm in this city. The seats in the Exchange were nearly all taken out of the Hall, so as to afford the greatest possible amount of room to all those who wished to attend. The meeting was held in the afternoon, and was attended by a large number of persons. The Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

The Whig meeting yesterday it is conceded by all, were far equalled in numbers and enthusiasm in this city. The seats in the Exchange were nearly all taken out of the Hall, so as to afford the greatest possible amount of room to all those who wished to attend. The meeting was held in the afternoon, and was attended by a large number of persons. The Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

The Whig meeting yesterday it is conceded by all, were far equalled in numbers and enthusiasm in this city. The seats in the Exchange were nearly all taken out of the Hall, so as to afford the greatest possible amount of room to all those who wished to attend. The meeting was held in the afternoon, and was attended by a large number of persons. The Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

The Whig meeting yesterday it is conceded by all, were far equalled in numbers and enthusiasm in this city. The seats in the Exchange were nearly all taken out of the Hall, so as to afford the greatest possible amount of room to all those who wished to attend. The meeting was held in the afternoon, and was attended by a large number of persons. The Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

The Whig meeting yesterday it is conceded by all, were far equalled in numbers and enthusiasm in this city. The seats in the Exchange were nearly all taken out of the Hall, so as to afford the greatest possible amount of room to all those who wished to attend. The meeting was held in the afternoon, and was attended by a large number of persons. The Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

The Whig meeting yesterday it is conceded by all, were far equalled in numbers and enthusiasm in this city. The seats in the Exchange were nearly all taken out of the Hall, so as to afford the greatest possible amount of room to all those who wished to attend. The meeting was held in the afternoon, and was attended by a large number of persons. The Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

The Whig meeting yesterday it is conceded by all, were far equalled in numbers and enthusiasm in this city. The seats in the Exchange were nearly all taken out of the Hall, so as to afford the greatest possible amount of room to all those who wished to attend. The meeting was held in the afternoon, and was attended by a large number of persons. The Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city. The article was not a "plain talk" to Boston, but a "plain talk" with Boston. The implication that the Whigs of this city have a "prejudice" against the Whigs of that city is a "prejudice" against the Whigs of this city.

Later from Mexico.

By Overland Express to the Tribune.

INSURRECTION!

ITS SUMMARY OVERTHROW.

SANTA ANNA WITH A PASSPORT.

COLLECTION OF TAXES.

COURT MARTIAL.

The package by the daily Overland Express to the New York Tribune has arrived, bringing dates from New Orleans to the 20th inst.

The steamship Massachusetts and ship Danvers from Vera Cruz had arrived, with advice to 10th inst. An armistice was signed, stipulating that the Americans should not occupy any part of the country not at present in their hands.

The collection of Taxes is suspended except those on gaming-houses, liquor shops and places of amusement.

When elections are held in any place occupied by Americans, they are to withdraw out of the place until the election is over.

There are also a number of other articles, giving to the Mexicans almost the entire right to the Government.

Gen. Lane and troops left the Capital on the 17th, and on the fourth day arrived at Queretaro. Before arriving there, however, information reached him that a body of 500 lancers was waiting their arrival to attack them. They arrived at the edge of the town without opposition, but when passing the first house were suddenly assailed with a terrible volley. The enemy from occupied batteries on the inside, supposed they could gain an easy victory.

The doors of the first house were however burst in a twinkling, and all the assailants found within were killed. The same was the case with the next house. The Americans determined to drive the enemy from their position, and a struggle until late in the night was cleared. Not a man of the enemy was left.

Some difficulty had arisen at the capital relative to suspending the collection of taxes for four days until the armistice could be concluded. All the members of the Ayuntamiento sent in their resignations, and the Archbishop of the capital presented a written protest against the heavy assessment on church property.

Santa Anna is at Tehuacan. On the 19th, our Government gave him a passport, supposing it to be his intention to leave the country, but in this he acted with his accustomed duplicity, his object being to put himself at the head of a large body of troops.

A Court Martial had been convened by Gen. Worth. Advice had been received from Queretaro, stating that the Congress was slow in coming together, only 21 members being present at the last meeting.

Markets.—New-Orleans, March 20. COTTON—Inactive, fair 7½c. SCOTCH—200 lbs. inside rates. MOLASSES—No change. FLOUR—Dull. FARMERS—Nothing. EXCHANGE—No alteration.

CHARLESTON, March 25. 3,000 bales of Cotton comprised the week's sales, fair at 7½c. SCOTCH—Supply heavy and sales depressed.

Ship News.—New-Orleans, March 25. Arrived—Ship "Hercules," from Philadelphia. Left—Ship "Hercules," for New-Orleans.

BY THE MIDNIGHT SOUTHERN MAIL.

THINGS IN WASHINGTON.

Mr. Webster's Speech—Reports thereof, &c.

Correspondence of the Tribune.

WASHINGTON, March 24.

There is much talk today of Mr. WEBSTER's speech. Mr. CALHOUN, I understand, pronounced it good, and never but twice before excelled. Once in Mr. WEBSTER's reply to Col. HAYNE, and again, in his speech of the 17th inst.

The merits of Mr. WEBSTER's speech are an intellectual effort, and not at all in his opinion orthodox in point of doctrine. Starting in public life almost at the same period, and with almost the same opinions during their earlier Parliamentary years, these two distinguished gentlemen have been since at times in political opinions while the poles asunder. Still they have ever maintained for each other the character of ability and the great respect and admiration.

Mr. HUGHES, the Stenographer of the Senate, surprised the reading community to-day by a full, almost absolute literal report of Mr. WEBSTER's speech. It is a work of great merit, and is issued from the lips of Mr. WEBSTER, and has in it all the early truth to the world. It is a triumph of skill and labor. Those who have doubted cannot now but acknowledge that there is something good in Webster.

The reading public of New-York, I am told, will have said this speech on their breakfast tables to-morrow morning, reported by Mr. WEBSTER himself. He came here to report the speech for his paper, the Courier and Enquirer, will make a more finished report. It will be the difference between a speech by Webster and a speech by Webster.

He is a man of great power, and his speech is a triumph of skill and labor. Those who have doubted cannot now but acknowledge that there is something good in Webster.

He is a man of great power, and his speech is a triumph of skill and labor. Those who have doubted cannot now but acknowledge that there is something good in Webster.

He is a man of great power, and his speech is a triumph of skill and labor. Those who have doubted cannot now but acknowledge that there is something good in Webster.

He is a man of great power, and his speech is a triumph of skill and labor. Those who have doubted cannot now but acknowledge that there is something good in Webster.

He is a man of great power, and his speech is a triumph of skill and labor. Those who have doubted cannot now but acknowledge that there is something good in Webster.

He is a man of great power, and his speech is a triumph of skill and labor. Those who have doubted cannot now but acknowledge that there is something good in Webster.

He is a man of great power, and his speech is a triumph of skill and labor. Those who have doubted cannot now but acknowledge that there is something good in Webster.

He is a man of great power, and his speech is a triumph of skill and labor. Those who have doubted cannot now but acknowledge that there is something good in Webster.

He is a man of great power, and his speech is a triumph of skill and labor. Those who have doubted cannot now but acknowledge that there is something good in Webster.

CITY ITEMS.

AN RECURSION OF THE RIVER.—On Saturday afternoon, in compliance with the polite invitation of the Mayor, the New-York City Police Company, headed by the Mayor, went on board the new steamboat Erie for a trip up the North River.

We saw new steamboat, though the Erie has appeared in public before, but in such different guise that nobody would know her. To disclose the whole mystery, this new, spacious and regular looking steamboat was the new Erie, which, rigid out with all sorts of queer accretions and experimental contrivances, none of which happened to go well. In consequence she was purchased by the Railroad Company and transformed into the Erie.

Company and transformed into the Erie. The new Erie, which, rigid out with all sorts of queer accretions and experimental contrivances, none of which happened to go well. In consequence she was purchased by the Railroad Company and transformed into the Erie.

The new Erie, which, rigid out with all sorts of queer accretions and experimental contrivances, none of which happened to go well. In consequence she was purchased by the Railroad Company and transformed into the Erie.

The new Erie, which, rigid out with all sorts of queer accretions and experimental contrivances, none of which happened to go well. In consequence she was purchased by the Railroad Company and transformed into the Erie.

The new Erie, which, rigid out with all sorts of queer accretions and experimental contrivances, none of which happened to go well. In consequence she was purchased by the Railroad Company and transformed into the Erie.

The new Erie, which, rigid out with all sorts of queer accretions and experimental contrivances, none of which happened to go well. In consequence she was purchased by the Railroad Company and transformed into the Erie.

The new Erie, which, rigid out with all sorts of queer accretions and experimental contrivances, none of which happened to go well. In consequence she was purchased by the Railroad Company and transformed into the Erie.

The new Erie, which, rigid out with all sorts of queer accretions and experimental contrivances, none of which happened to go well. In consequence she was purchased by the Railroad Company and transformed into the Erie.

The new Erie, which, rigid out with all sorts of queer accretions and experimental contrivances, none of which happened to go well. In consequence she was purchased by the Railroad Company and transformed into the Erie.

The new Erie, which, rigid out with all sorts of queer accretions and experimental contrivances, none of which happened to go well. In consequence she was purchased by the Railroad Company and transformed into the Erie.

The new Erie, which, rigid out with all sorts of queer accretions and experimental contrivances, none of which happened to go well. In consequence she was purchased by the Railroad Company and transformed into the Erie.

The new Erie, which, rigid out with all sorts of queer accretions and experimental contrivances, none of which happened to go well. In consequence she was purchased by the Railroad Company and transformed into the Erie.

The new Erie, which, rigid out with all sorts of queer accretions and experimental contrivances, none of which happened to go well. In consequence she was purchased by the Railroad Company and transformed into the Erie.

COMMON COUNCIL.

THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

COMMON COUNCIL.

</